This year, The Parenting Place and Pickens County Advocacy Center are partnering together in order to make a lasting impact in our communities. Individually, The Parenting Place provides services, resources, and support to prevent all forms of child abuse, while Pickens County Advocacy Center offers free trauma-informed services for survivors of sexual abuse. Together we help make our counties safer for all.

We come on behalf of our Night in Winter Wonderland Gala on December 6th, 2025.

We are seeking donations for raffle items such as gift cards, services, or merchandise for baskets.

We also have several sponsorship opportunities for this event:

Gold - $5000

Silver - $3000

Evergreen - $1000

Holly Berry - $500

To make this event successful in fundraising efforts, we rely on the backing of generous businesses like yours! Your support is critical to making this event possible. We are glad to keep you updated on our progress.

You may access our websites at tppupstate.org and pcadvocacy.org. We are both 501c3 organizations. Upon request, we will provide you with a copy of our tax-exempt form.

Thank you for supporting our efforts. With your generosity you are actively helping to make our counties safer!

Sincerely,

Greta Young, Executive Director of The Parenting Place
Josh Holder, Executive Director of Pickens County Advocacy Center

WHY CHOOSE US?

For 40 years, Pickens County Advocacy Center has remained steadfast in serving survivors of sexual violence with compassion, dignity, and unwavering support. As we mark this milestone, we reaffirm our commitment to educating our community and creating a safer, more informed future for all.

Our mission is to prevent sexual violence and support survivors by providing Trauma-Informed services, education, and collaboration within Pickens County.

Our vision is a safe and supportive community for all individuals.

Full range of services include free counseling ages 12+, hospital accompaniment, legal advocacy, crisis intervention for survivors and secondary survivors of sexual violence, as well as education and prevention for the community.

Since 1991, The Parenting Place believes that every child deserves to grow up happy, healthy, and safe. Yet, too many families in Upstate South Carolina struggle with the risk of abuse and neglect. We help families thrive and protect the most vulnerable members of our community.

Our mission to build relationships and provide services, resources, and support that prevent all forms of child abuse and neglect in the Upstate.

Our vision is happy, healthy children growing up in homes free abuse and neglect.

Our Services reach Anderson, Greenville, Oconee, and Pickens counties. Services include but are not limited to, Healthy Families Foothills program which provides free, in-home support during pregnancy through early childhood. Trained home visitors teach parenting skills, encourage bonding, promote literacy, and conduct developmental screenings. Our licensed Counseling & Supportive Services team provides free, confidential care to children and adults who have experienced emotional, mental, physical, and sexual abuse.
